

TRUSTED SOURCE. MANY SOLUTIONS.

Quality. Availability. Serviceability. That's what STRATTEC offers to every customer, from Detroit's largest automaker ... to dealers like you.

STRATTEC'S history in the automotive security business spans more than 90 years and we continue to be the largest lock and key supplier for GM, Ford and Chrysler. Our position as a leader and innovator in the industry allows you to offer your customers the security and peace-of-mind they can only get with STRATTEC original equipment parts. When automotive work is the lion's share of your business, you look for the security of quality parts and the service to back them up. The security of knowing you've given your customer all the best – doing your best work – installing the very best parts available.

We make millions of locks every year, to the most exacting standards in the industry. We want to make it easy to put your trust in STRATTEC. Just like your customers trust you.
